As part of our celebration of March is Reading Month, Home & School is excited to host a Book Swap to help foster a love of reading and build community among our students!

We invite students to bring in gently used, age-appropriate books from home that they are ready to pass along to a new reader. For every book a student donates, they will be able to choose a “new-to-them” book to take home and enjoy.

How it works:

- 📬 Send in gently used books (no tears, missing pages, or heavy writing)
- 🔄 Students will exchange their books from the table outside the office
- ❤️ All leftover books will be donated or used to support classroom libraries

This is a wonderful opportunity to encourage reading, practice stewardship by reusing books, and share the joy of stories with others.

Thank you for helping us make reading fun, meaningful, and accessible for all!

“Today a reader, tomorrow a leader.”

Blessings, Shannon Murphy

What This Looks Like at Holy Trinity

Students will explore ways to care for creation through:

- prayer and reflection
- science and environmental learning
- Service and STEM projects
- classroom stewardship initiatives

Our goal is to help students grow as disciples who:

- see God in creation
- understand their responsibility to care for the world
- live their faith through everyday actions
